FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL

On the first day of school all 5th and 6th graders should report directly to their homeroom which is their first period or intervention class. 7th and 8th graders report directly to the middle/jh school gymnasium.

Every effort is being made to ensure the most efficient use of middle school education time. Again this year there will be a graded (S or U) intervention period for all students taught by qualified teachers. Students will be participating in extended periods of language arts (English & Literature will be separate grades) in the 7th and 8th grades. The 5th and 6th grade will have recess prior to lunch daily and vary slightly in length from the 7th and 8th grade schedules.
